Rev. Dr. Terrell A. Fields

Rev. Dr. Terrell A. Fields is the Senior Pastor of First Missionary Baptist Church in Kinston, North Carolina. Born in Richmond, Virginia, he accepted Christ at the age of seven and answered the call to preach in 2016. A first-generation preacher, he was licensed by First Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Dr. W. K. Raynor and ordained through the Bear Creek Missionary Baptist Association.

Dr. Fields began his study of Scriptures at Livingstone College, furthered his education at North Carolina A&T State University, and earned his Doctorate in Leadership Studies from Ferris State University. He also completed additional studies through the Jeffrey D. Thomas Bible Institute in Dallas, Texas, and Grace School of Theology in Houston, Texas.

Dr. Fields' ministry was further shaped and strengthened at Wheeler Avenue Baptist Church in Houston, Texas, under the pastoral leadership of Rev. Dr. Marcus D. Cosby. His ministry has extended throughout the Bear Creek Missionary Baptist Association, the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, and the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc.

Most recently, Dr. Fields was appointed to serve with the Church Planting and Revitalization Division of the National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc., where he contributes to the national work of equipping pastors and congregations, strengthening local churches, and advancing the work of church planting and revitalization.

A passionate leader and visionary, Dr. Fields is the Co-Founder and Executive Administrator of the annual Interdenominational City-Wide Revival in Kinston, North Carolina, which has drawn more than 1,200 attendees annually for the past twelve years. He is also the founder of Preaching Under 30, a ministry dedicated to developing emerging preachers, and Church Leadership Transformation, a nonprofit organization focused on equipping church leaders for effective twenty-first-century ministry.

In recognition of his leadership, community service, and pastoral ministry, Dr. Fields was inducted into Livingstone College's Forty Under Forty Delta Cohort. An accomplished author, preacher, teacher, and leader, Dr. Fields remains committed to proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ, developing leaders, and advancing the Kingdom of God. He believes that the preaching of the Gospel is not complete without the saving of souls!
