Attention Gold Star Members - If you will become a "Gold Star Member" this year (50 years of continued membership), please leave your name in the church office by Sunday, October 2, 2022. All Gold Star Members will be recognized on Sunday October 16th during our 10:00 a.m. worship service. This year marks our 143rd church Founder's Day and Anniversary.

The FBC Lay Caregivers would like to invite the congregation to donate the following men’s items: gloves, knitted caps, lotion (travel size), and deodorant during the months of September, October, and November. The collection will go to Samaritan Ministries for homeless men. All donations would be due by November 18. A donation box is located on the ground floor by the double glass doors.

First Baptist Church family- We will conduct a church vote to let the congregation decide if they would like to:

1. Move forward with Rev. Campbell as our Intentional Interim Pastor.
2. Continue the search for other candidates for the position of Intentional Interim Pastor of First Baptist Church.

The voting will take place online on October 13-14, and an in-person vote on October 15 at noon at the church. The Church members will receive voting instructions and the link to vote in a later communication.

The voting results will be announced during the worship service on Sunday, October 16.

Deacon Jesse Hymes, Chair
Intentional Interim Pastor Subcommittee

CHURCH COVENANT

Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour; and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, angels and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge and holiness; to give it a place in our affections, prayers and services above every organization of human origin; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrine; to contribute cheerfully and regularly, as God has prospered us, towards its expenses, for the support of a faithful and evangelical ministry among us, the relief of the poor and the spread of the Gospel throughout the world. In case of difference of opinion in the church, we will strive to avoid a contentious spirit, and if we cannot unanimously agree, we will cheerfully recognize the right of the majority to govern.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to study diligently the word of God; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintance; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be kind and just to those in our employ, and faithful in the service we promise others; endeavoring in the purity of heart and good will towards all men to exemplify and commend our holy faith.

We further engage to watch over, to pray for, to exhort and stir up each other unto every good word and work; to guard each other's reputation, not needlessly exposing the infirmities of others; to participate in each other's joys, and with tender sympathy bear one another's burdens and sorrows; to cultivate Christian courtesy; to be slow to give or take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, being mindful of the rules of the Saviour in the eighteenth chapter of Matthew, to secure it without delay; and through life, amid evil report, and good report, to seek to live to the glory of God, who hath called us out of darkness into his marvelous light.

When we remove from this place, we engage as soon as possible to unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's word.
