A Moment to Stand:

In Job 7:17, the question is asked what is it about mankind that God almighty would take the time to consider our disposition. After all, God was God. There is no one to compare to God. Job was a good man but had fallen on hard times. He has lost everything. Children. Finances. Servants. Wealth. But he was not God. He was not the creator. He was not the Savior. The thought really waxes the idea that Job was having a moment. It was indeed a weak moment. In fact, all of us have moments. Moments of frustration. Moments of fear. Moments of failure. When you become a Christian your new position in life will be subject to moments of challenge. You will have challenges at home, from family members, on the job, at church, and points in between. When challenged you cannot strike back, or respond in kind. As a Christian during your season of challenges, you must speak boldly, calmly and confidently. You must also do so while standing on the Word of God as your positional foundation. Presidents come and go. Congressional members will come and go. Congressional hearings will come and go. Life challenges come and go. But the Word of God is forever. Always stand on the word! Be encouraged.

CHURCH COVENANT

Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour; and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, angels and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge and holiness; to give it a place in our affections, prayers and services above every organization of human origin; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrine; to contribute cheerfully and regularly, as God has prospered us, towards its expenses, for the support of a faithful and evangelical ministry among us, the relief of the poor and the spread of the Gospel throughout the world. In case of difference of opinion in the church, we will strive to avoid a contentious spirit, and if we cannot unanimously agree, we will cheerfully recognize the right of the majority to govern.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to study diligently the word of God; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintance; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be kind and just to those in our employ, and faithful in the service we promise others; endeavoring in the purity of heart and good will towards all men to exemplify and commend our holy faith.

We further engage to watch over, to pray for, to exhort and stir up each other unto every good word and work; to guard each other's reputation, not needlessly exposing the infirmities of others; to participate in each other's joys, and with tender sympathy bear one another's burdens and sorrows; to cultivate Christian courtesy; to be slow to give or take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, being mindful of the rules of the Saviour in the eighteenth chapter of Matthew, to secure it without delay; and through life, amid evil report, and good report, to seek to live to the glory of God, who hath called us out of darkness into his marvelous light.

When we remove from this place, we engage as soon as possible to unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's word.
