Offering

LITANY

I remember a man who knew he was going to die: who gathered with his friends and spoke to them about what he really believed, who wanted them to remember and to keep his word alive.

I, too, remember.

The ranking priests bound him and turned him over to Pilate, the roman governor.

I, remember.

Then Pilate had him flogged and turned him over to be crucified. Now, some women were observing this from a distance.

(All Together)

Today, we gather with them, and with Jesus, at the cross.
Amen.
