Devotional

You have God's attention:

The Bible doesn't tell us what Joseph thought while in prison, but perhaps he wondered if God was paying attention to his plot. Yet even while Joseph was in prison, God was still blessing him and preparing him for some awesome things. Joseph's best days were to come. God was preparing him to be someone who could handle those lessons. We are introduced to Joseph in Genesis 30. From that introduction until the final chapter of Genesis roughly 20 chapters, we are given the story of Joseph's life. Perhaps, in the beginning, Joseph had the usual thoughts, loved by his father and several big brothers that would help him to grow up. But that love Joseph thought he had from his family turned into jealousy from his brothers. Later, he experienced kidnapping and imprisonment. Yet amidst the depression, angry, bewilderment by what had happened to him, Joseph's faith lead him to discover that God had a way of making all things work for good in your life. (Romans 8:28) Later he would be able to confess to his brothers that all that had happened to him was the plan of God. (Genesis 45:8) In a similar way, everything we go through in life is in preparation for something else. The writer in Numbers 6:26 says may , "the Lord lift up His countenance upon you," which means "to lift up His face." Another way to translate it is "to look, to see, to know, to be interested, and to have one's full attention." If you are wondering if we have God's full attention, remember your best days are yet to come. Be encouraged.
