Call To Worship

Pastor: I love the Lord because he has heard my voice and my supplications. Because he inclined his ear to me, therefore I will call on him as long as I live.

Congregation: What shall I return to the Lord for all his bounty to me?

All: I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord.
Psalm 116:1-2, 12-13

What the Lord has done:

Memorial Day, an American holiday observed on the last Monday of May, honors men and women who died while serving in the U.S. military. Originally known as Decoration Day, it originated in the years following the Civil War and became an official federal holiday in 1971. Many Americans observe Memorial Day by visiting cemeteries or memorials, holding family gatherings and participating in parades. When the Lord empowered Moses to lead the children of Israel out of Egypt across the Red Sea, He commanded that the Passover and certain other feasts be remembered annually. (Deuteronomy 16) The theme? What the Lord has done. Many people here in America commemorate the linkage of their families on a day called "family reunion". The theme? What the Lord has done. Yet no command to remember what the Lord has done is greater than what Paul told the Church at Corinth: "For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till He come." (1 Corinthians 11:26) Further, Paul told the Church at Colossae: "Work hard and cheerfully at whatever you do, as though you were working for the Lord rather than for people." (Colossians 3:23) Paul's example was to give his all to the Lord each day. To work for the Lord is to do something with Him in mind each day. When we do that we are in effect commemorating what the Lord has done in our lives each day. If you really think about it, each day the Lord is blessing us. Each day that we awake is a Memorial Day for us in Jesus Christ. Be encouraged. (Source:raycampbellblog.wordpress.com)

CHURCH COVENANT

Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour; and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now in the presence of God, angels and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge and holiness; to give it a place in our affections, prayers and services above every organization of human origin; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrine; to contribute cheerfully and regularly, as God has prospered us, towards its expenses, for the support of a faithful and evangelical ministry among us, the relief of the poor and the spread of the Gospel throughout the world. In case of difference of opinion in the church, we will strive to avoid a contentious spirit, and if we cannot unanimously agree, we will cheerfully recognize the right of the majority to govern.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to study diligently the word of God; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintance; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be kind and just to those in our employ, and faithful in the service we promise others; endeavoring in the purity of heart and good will towards all men to exemplify and commend our holy faith.

We further engage to watch over, to pray for, to exhort and stir up each other unto every good word and work; to guard each other's reputation, not needlessly exposing the infirmities of others; to participate in each other's joys, and with tender sympathy bear one another's burdens and sorrows; to cultivate Christian courtesy; to be slow to give or take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, being mindful of the rules of the Saviour in the eighteenth chapter of Matthew, to secure it without delay; and through life, amid evil report, and good report, to seek to live to the glory of God, who hath called us out of darkness into his marvelous light.

When we remove from this place, we engage as soon as possible to unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's word.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Since January 2023, the Bylaws Committee has worked diligently to receive, review and edit recommended revisions to our current Bylaws, adopted in 2019.

Copies of the final DRAFT of the Bylaws will be available beginning Sunday, June 18 (contact the church office). An electronic copy will also be sent to the FBC membership the very same day.

A Bylaws Feedback Session is scheduled for Saturday, June 24 at noon in the Hedgley Fellowship Hall. This in-person session is designed to share each proposed revision and provide the necessary clarification to each revision. Committee members will be available to discuss the entire document.

Your feedback, concerns and overall understanding will be CRITICAL as we prepare to accept this document at a Special Call Meeting later in July.

Please join us June 24th to discuss this very important FBC document. Mark your calendar and make plans to attend!
