Standing on convictions:

Muhammad Ali was one of the most important mortal men to have lived on this earth. He took a stand for what he viewed as right and never wavered. He was criticized, ostracized, and called every name in the book. But he never wavered from his convictions. Yet we learned later after he lost several years of being able to box, earn a living, that his stand for righteousness was not just about himself. He became world famous through his boxing gift but also for the causes that he took up on behalf of others, He traveled the world on behalf of the poor and disenfranchised. Time proved him right. Time brought him favor from around the world. Although his convictions never changed, the world did change. That is it! In a similar way, our Lord Jesus Christ came so that the world might change and turn to the one true God. (John 6:38-40) He told us in John 9, that He was the "Light of the world" which means apart from Him we live in darkness. In John 10, He told us that He was the "Door" through which is the way to the Father of life. Then in the same John 10, He admitted that He was the "Good Shepherd" that would be our guide on the way to the Father. Like Ali, as the Lord made the earthly claims, He was criticized, ostracized, beaten, and called every name in the book. But Jesus Christ never wavered from the mission of His Father. A mission to call men and women from darkness into the marvelous light. Our Lord took His stand. Our Lord stood on His convictions. Now you and I must take our stand for the Lord. Be encouraged.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Since January 2023, the Bylaws Committee has worked diligently to receive, review and edit recommended revisions to our current Bylaws, adopted in 2019.

Copies of the final DRAFT of the Bylaws will be available beginning Sunday, June 18 (contact the church office). An electronic copy will also be sent to the FBC membership the very same day.

Nominations for the position of Deacon of FBC is now being accepted. All nominations must be made in writing and submitted to the church office by Monday, June 19th.

All previous nominations for the Deacon Ministry should be resubmitted by the stated deadline.

THANK YOU

If you missed Vacation Bible School 2023 you missed a treat! It was an exciting week filled with Bible study, crafts, music, an inspiring message from Rev. Joel Weathers, a rising second year student at WFU School of Divinity, the I've Got This With Jesus drama production "that dramatized the reality of hard work and perseverance that rewards those who excel to reach their highest goals in Christ Jesus." Prizes were given daily to individuals who summarized their class lessons and good fellowship over dinner each night was had by all.

Thank you, teachers, church staff, food service workers, paint party assistants, greeters, security, photographer, drama and music coordinators, and all volunteers and participants for making the return of FBC Vacation Bible School a huge success!
