

To the First Baptist Church Family,

It is with great pleasure, after being so excited to work with him, the David R. Hedgely Choir would like to formally introduce to you Dr. David L. Allen our choir musician.

Dr. David L. Allen is a talented composer, musician, producer, director, and publisher, who has produced concerts, music workshops and recordings for over five decades. Recognized as one of the top writers in gospel music, he has mentored, performed, and recorded with many of the country's top gospel artists and has composed more than 500 songs.

Dr. Allen served as Minister of Music at Ambassadors Cathedral in this city for 48 years. He served in the same capacity at Bethany Community Church in Los Angeles, California and Mount Zion Baptist Church in Greensboro, North Carolina. In 2017, he was awarded an honorary doctorate degree from Abundant Life School of Ministry and Music Institute located in Birmingham, Alabama.

He is presently seeking new challenges and career advancement in an environment where top performance is both recognized and rewarded.

The Hedgely Choir presents to you Dr. David L. Allen.
