LITANY

I remember a man who knew he was going to die: who gathered with his friends and spoke to them about what he really believed, who wanted them to remember and to keep his word alive.

I, too, remember.

The ranking priests bound him and turned him over to Pilate, the roman governor.

I, remember.

Then Pilate had him flogged and turned him over to be crucified. Now, some women were observing this from a distance.

(All Together)

Today, we gather with them, and with Jesus, at the cross.
Amen.

Special thanks to the following people:*

Rev. Joshua Campbell, Director of Worship, Music, and the Arts, Wake Forest School of Divinity, for leading the hymn.

Marion Thomas is a Certified Peer Support Specialist, WRAP Facilitator, and a candidate for Certified Journal Facilitator. She is pursuing an MDiv degree in Interfaith Chaplaincy and is a WFU Chaplain Intern and Wellbeing Ambassador. Marion enjoys facilitating contemplative photography, journaling, and expressive arts therapy workshops. In her free time, she loves playing tennis, hiking, traveling, and immersing herself in nature.

Gabrielle Banks hails from Stafford, Virginia, with a B.A. in Sociology and Anthropology from High Point University. Her Baptist and Non-denominational roots fuse with the Pentecostal traditions of her new church home and her pending MDiv degree to create a sort of Bapti-Costal liberation theological lens. On Sunday mornings, you can find her playing the drums at New Covenant United Holy Church in Durham, NC. Gabrielle is excited and honored to proclaim the good news alongside her peers!

Rev. Strauss Moore Shiple is a native of South Carolina. Strauss is a retired tourism marketing professional with extensive experience in bi-vocational pastoral ministry. Strauss returned to her alma mater in 2022, in pursuit of a Master of Divinity (MDiv) degree. Upon graduation, Strauss expects to continue to run her community development non-profit and to preach when called upon.

Georgia McKee, originally from Frisco, Texas, is president of the Wake Forest School of Divinity Student Leadership Council and co-founder of Christian Athlete Circles. She's also the digital communications associate at BJC (Baptist Joint Committee) where she leads the Christians Against Christian Nationalism TikTok and Instagram accounts (@endchristiannationalism). After graduation in May, Georgia will move to Dallas, Texas to be a pastoral resident at Wilshire Baptist Church.

Rev. Zack Jackson is a third-year student at the Wake Forest University School of Divinity, where he has nearly completed the Master of Divinity degree with a graduate concentration in Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies. He currently serves as Pastoral Resident at First Baptist Church on Fifth, where he was ordained on November 12, 2023. Though he previously served in a variety of roles related to higher education administration prior to enrolling in divinity school, he is now pursuing a calling to congregational ministry leadership in the Baptist tradition.

Jada Williams is a JD/MDiv dual degree student at Wake Forest University who plans to practice law upon her graduation in May. Originally from Snellville, GA, she holds a Bachelor of Arts in History from Young Harris College, where she was a Division II scholarship athlete and involved in all aspects of campus life. She enjoys spending time with her friends, playing recreational (slightly too competitive) sports like basketball, flag football, and softball, cooking, and baking her famous cheesecakes.

Reverend Dr. Corey D. B. Walker is Dean of Wake Forest University School of Divinity, Wake Forest Professor of the Humanities, and Inaugural Director of the Program in African American Studies. Dean Walker has an extensive record of scholarly accomplishment and academic leadership. He served as Vice President, Dean, and Professor of Religion and Society at the Samuel DeWitt Proctor School of Theology at Virginia Union University; founding Dean of the College of Arts, Sciences, Business and Education and inaugural John W. and Anna Hodgin Hanes Professor of the Humanities at Winston-Salem State University; and Chair of the department of Africana Studies at Brown University. He is the author and editor of numerous books, and a variety of scholarly articles. He speaks to congregations and communities across the nation and has appeared on a variety of media outlets in the United States and abroad.
