Healthy Meal Planning: Tips for Older Adults

Making Smart Food Choices

Making smart food choices is important at any age. Eating healthy can be difficult even if you know which foods you should buy and prepare. Older adults may face challenges such as budget constraints, physical limitations, mood changes, and dietary restrictions that make it harder to follow through with smart food choices. However, whatever the roadblocks, it is still possible to choose healthy foods that support overall well-being.

Unique Nutrition Tips

Enjoy a variety of foods from each food group to help reduce the risk of developing diseases such as high blood pressure, diabetes, and heart disease. Choose foods with little or no added sugar, saturated fats, and sodium.

Get enough protein throughout the day to maintain muscle. Try adding seafood, dairy, or fortified soy products along with beans, peas, and lentils to your meals.

Incorporate fruits and vegetables into meals and snacks. Look for pre-cut varieties if slicing and chopping is a challenge.

Try foods fortified with Vitamin B12, such as some cereals, or talk with your provider about taking a B12 supplement.

Reduce sodium intake by seasoning foods with herbs and citrus such as lemon juice. Herbs, lemon juice, or vinegar can boost flavor in food.

Stay hydrated by drinking plenty of water throughout the day to aid digestion and nutrient absorption. Strive to limit or avoid sugary drinks.

Simple adjustments can go a long way toward building a healthier eating pattern. Follow the tips to get the most out of foods and beverages while meeting your nutrient needs and reducing the risk of disease:

FBC HEALTH CARE MINISTRY - MARCH

Remember March is National Colorectal Cancer Awareness Month, National Nutrition Month, and National Women's History Month.

Healthy eating is essential at every age. Eat a variety of fruits, vegetables, grains, protein foods, and dairy or fortified soy alternatives. When deciding what to eat or drink, choose options that are filled with nutrients and limited in sugars, saturated fats, and sodium. Commit to a healthy plate lifestyle.

"YOU ARE NOT ALONE"

There will be a planning meeting on Saturday, March 17th for any member interested in forming a Support Group for our membership. The focus will be on grief and loneliness. We will gather at 11:00 a.m. in the Family Life Center.

Hello Parents,

The Youth and Children's Ministry is working to re-establish our children and youth choirs, our youth usher board and other youth activities. We are reaching out to the church youth of all ages and the parents/guardians to meet on Youth Fun Day, Saturday March 22, 2025 from 11am-1pm in the David R. Hedgley Fellowship Hall. We request that members who would like to work with our youth join us on March 22, 2025 as well. We have many ideas and would like for you to share yours with us.
