A few members of the Queen Esther Missionary Group will be worshipping with the inmates at the McGee Hedgley Chapel on Sunday, September 27, 2026. And yes the namesake Hedgley is our own Rev. David R. Hedgley. The Forsyth Jail & Prison Ministries has requested donations of personal hygiene items. Items needed are full size bar soap, travel size shampoo, toothpaste (5 oz. or less) and deodorant (no aerosol). The Queen Esther Missionary Group is asking that the congregation donate items by placing them in containers at the front and in the elevator tower. In addition, we request your prayers for the worship service and the inmates and staff. We shall be collecting the items until the end of our morning worship service on Sept. 27, 2026. If you have any questions, please contact Mrs. Janet Myrick Wall at (336) 416-6481.

Working in God's vineyards wherever He sends us.
